

PRIVACY POLICY

In this Privacy Policy, 'we', 'us' and 'our' means ILG Insurance Brokers Limited.

We respect the privacy of your personal information. This Privacy Policy sets out how we collect, store, use and disclose your personal information, which we do in accordance with the Privacy Act 2020.

What personal information we collect

In New Zealand, under the Privacy Act 2020, "personal information" means information about an identifiable individual. We collect certain types of personal information about you, including:

- information in relation to the application for, provision and administration of insurance, such as your contact details, date of birth, employment details, health information, details of previous insurances and past insurance claims and criminal records;
- financial, billing and invoicing information;
- if you visit our website, we will collect personal information that you submit, such as via online forms; and
- any other personal information you otherwise provide to us.

If you do not provide us with the information that we need, we or any of our third party service providers may not be able to provide you with products or services.

How we collect your personal information

We may collect personal information in a number of ways, including:

- directly from you, via our website, telephone, in writing or email; and/or
- indirectly from third parties, if necessary. For example, your employer, referees, insurers, premium funders and other third party service providers or publicly from available sources.

You authorise us to contact such third parties for the purposes of providing you with the information or services that you have requested.

We collect your personal information in order to

- offer, provide, manage and administer the many financial services and products we are involved in and offer to our clients. These include insurance and mortgage broking, claims and risk management consulting and other insurance services such as financial and retirement planning, employee benefits and arranging premium financing for clients.
- We also collect it to be able to develop, establish and administer alliances and arrangements with other organisations in relation to the promotion, administration and use of our respective products and services

Disclosure of your personal information

Besides our staff, we share this information with 3rd parties to assist us in providing relevant products and services to our clients. We do, however, limit the use and disclosure of any personal information provided by us to such third parties for the specific purpose for which it was provided.

Other than when required or permitted by law, as specified in this Privacy Policy or where you have provided your consent, we will not disclose your personal information.

Nothing in this Privacy Policy prevents us from using and disclosing to others de-personalised aggregated data.

Transfer of personal information overseas

We may disclose your personal information to third party service providers and/or insurers who may process your personal information either on our behalf or otherwise for one or more of the above-stated purposes.

Your obligations when you provide personal information of others

You must not provide us with personal information of any other individual unless you have the express authorisation of that individual to do so. If you do provide us with such information about another individual, before doing so you:

- must tell that individual that you will be providing their information to us and that we will handle their information in accordance with this Privacy Policy;
- must provide that individual with a copy of (or refer them to) this Privacy Policy; and
- warrant that you have that individual's consent to provide their information to us.

If you have not done this, you must tell us before you provide any third party information.

Your obligations when we provide you with personal information

If we give you, or provide you access to, the personal information of any other person, you must only use it:

- for the purposes we have agreed to; and
- in compliance with applicable privacy laws (including the Privacy Act 2020) and this Privacy Policy.

You must also ensure that your agents, advisers, employees and contractors meet the above requirements.

Accuracy, access and correction of your personal information

We take reasonable steps to ensure that your personal information is accurate, complete and up-to-date whenever we collect, use or disclose it. However, we also rely on you to advise us of any changes to your personal information.

Please contact us using our contact details below as soon as possible if there are any changes to your personal information or if you believe the personal information we hold about you is not accurate, complete or up-to-date.

You can make a request to access your personal information or to have it corrected by contacting us using the contact details below. If you make an access request, we will provide you with access to the personal information we hold about you unless otherwise required or permitted by law. We will notify you of the basis for any denial of access to your personal information. We may charge a fee where permitted by law

Security of your personal information

We take reasonable steps to protect any personal information that we hold from misuse, interference and loss, and from unauthorised access, alteration and disclosure. However, data protection measures are never completely secure and, despite the measures we have put in place, we cannot guarantee the security of your personal information. You must take care to ensure you protect your personal information. You should notify us as soon as possible if you become aware of any security breaches. Where required by law, we will notify you of any notifiable privacy breach concerning your personal information.

Updates of Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to amend our Privacy Policy from time to time to ensure we properly manage and process your personal data.
